

2020 Awards Nominations

2020 has been challenging on many fronts, so we're putting our typical awards program on hold in favor of celebrating individuals and institutions that supported, adapted, and innovated this year. Nominations of MMA Members* are encouraged for the following:

Colleague Champion

Nominate an individual who is an MMA member* who lent you a helping hand to deal with museum-related challenges this year. Examples might include someone who gave you great advice during a Colleague Chat or helped you with a work stressor in some way. MMA is about colleagues supporting and helping each other. Share a story of someone who did that for you.

COVID Crusaders

Nominate an individual or institutional MMA member* that helped address the COVID-19 crisis in their community that was not necessarily related to a museum mission. Examples include colleagues who sewed and donated masks for community members, museums that donated PPE to local hospitals, individuals who spent the shutdown volunteering at a food bank, etc. Museums and museum people have stepped up to serve their local communities during the pandemic. Let us know how.

Pivot!

Nominate an institutional MMA member* that transitioned during the COVID-19 pandemic to fulfill their mission in a brand new way. Examples include museums that started new online programs or exhibits, created take-home kits, or found a new way to serve their audiences and communities during the shutdown and beyond. Help us celebrate museums that saw opportunity during a setback.

Nominations can be for yourself, your own institutions, or others. MMA will likely follow up with you for more information after the nomination process has closed. The form only allows one nomination per category, per form. If you would like to provide more than one nominee for a category, please complete the first form and then start a new one.

*Nominees must be MMA members to be eligible. To check if a person or institution is an MMA member, please email Cjohnston@michiganmuseums.org or lcbrisson@michiganmuseums.org.
