

Museums make Michigan a better place to live, learn, and work.

Thriving Museums.
Vibrant Communities.

Museums in Michigan

collect artifacts, are open to the public and exhibit artifacts, and provide programming.

Total financial impact that arts and culture has on the economy in Michigan.

Visitors were welcomed to Michigan arts and cultural orgs in 2017, 4.5M for free.

685,855

Youth experienced arts and cultural venues and events in MI.

Important jobs within the state are supported by the arts & culture industry each year.

MI museums are Blue Star Museums, offering free admission to the nation's active-duty military personnel from Memorial Day-Labor Day.