

2023 Michigan Museums Association Peninsulas Prize Nominations

The Michigan Museums Association is pleased to recognize excellence and service in the Michigan museum community. This year, awards will acknowledge leadership, DEAI activities, and service to the Michigan museum community at a reception to be held on May 11 at the Gerald R Ford Presidential Museum in Grand Rapids.

Peninsulas Prize nominations close on March 2.

Two Peninsulas Prize recipients will be selected by the MMA Board of Directors after a public nomination process. One award will be presented to an individual for leadership. A second award will be presented to a museum for a diversity, equity, access, or inclusion (DEAI) project. All individuals and museums nominated will be acknowledged.

Nomination questions (pdf)

Award recipients must be members in good standing at the time of the awards presentation. Peninsulas Prize recipients must be present at the event on May 11. For multiple nominees, please use a separate form for each.

2023 Michigan Museums Association Peninsulas Prize Nominations

Peninsulas Prize for Leadership

This award recipient will be selected to acknowledge service to the Michigan museum community over the course of their career or in a specific circumstance. Leadership is defined broadly and can apply to anyone in an organization, not just those at an executive level.

The recipient must be an MMA member, either through a museum or individual membership, and be present at the May 11 awards event.

* 4. How has this nominee served the Michigan museum community as a leader?

* 5. Please share one specific example of this leadership in action.

6. What is the overall museum experience and background of this nominee?

* 7. Why should this nominee be recognized by the Michigan Museums Association for their leadership in 2023?

8. Is there anything else that would be helpful for us to know?

9. Support Materials

Please include a photo(s) and/or any other materials to support your nomination. You may also email materials to director@michiganmuseums.org.
